

*Special Action Group
Minute Meeting
March 27, 2002*

Welcome & Introductions

Marilynn Johnson welcomed group and explained in detail the handouts. The handouts included a detail description of the short-term and long-term action plans of the SAG group in Nogales. She welcomed Promotoras from Platicamos Salud and explained the information they will be providing. She announced that Dean Fish was appointed ----- Yoly Carrillo announced that she will be running for City Coucil in Nogales. Mr. George Liniero Each member of the group introduced themselves.

Border Health ;SI! Update

Joel Miester spoke about the Border Health SI model in Cochise and how the formation of the SAG group. Jacob Abarca reported that the SAG Group in Yuma and the SAG in Nogales had come up with the same community indicators. They are both looking at physical activity and nutrition. In Yuma there is a linkage happening in the area of nutrition. Promotoras provide information in the grocery stores about nutrition. Jill de Zapien announced that Maia Ingram developed a baby boy on Tuesday. She invited member of the group to attend a seminar at the Cancer Center where the results of the Proyecto VER project will be given.

Partners Update

Carmen Flores from SEAHEC reported that there has no been much activity in the past month due to intersession and spring break. The principal at San Cayetano would like to redo the School Health Index.